

VITAE FOUNDATION'S 18TH ANNUAL ST. CHARLES PRO-LIFE BENEFIT DINNER

WITH IMMACULÉE ILIBAGIZA

Hosted by St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Pro-Life Committee

Monday, October 21, 2013

St. Charles Convention Center
One Convention Center Plaza ♦ St. Charles, Missouri

DINNER & PROGRAM: 7:00 PM

While the Rwandan massacres were occurring in the spring of 1994, Immaculée Ilibagiza was sheltered with seven other women in a hidden 3 x 4 foot bathroom. Her silent exile went on for 91 days while the genocide raged outside. During that time, a transformation occurred. Anger and resentment were prayerfully replaced by faith, peace and hope. After 91 days, Immaculée was liberated from her hiding place only to face a horrific reality—only one family member survived the massacre. A New York Times best-selling author, Immaculée recounted her experience in “Left to Tell; Discovering God Amidst the Rwandan Holocaust.” She has appeared on 60 Minutes, The CBS Early Show, CNN and EWTN.

Special Guest Appearance by Lynne Jackson who is the great-great granddaughter of Dred and Harriet Scott of the Dred Scott Decision, 1857. She is a staunch pro-life advocate and community activist.

Proceeds will help Vitae, a national non-profit organization, make a significant difference in the lives of young women who are faced with an unplanned pregnancy. Using mass media venues such as TV, radio, Internet, and mobile phones, Vitae's research-based educational messaging directs these women to local resources where they can find the caring and practical support needed to make life-affirming decisions.

Registration Fee: $50 per person

(non-refundable, $25 is tax-deductible)

Seating is limited. Reservations are required.

Register online at www.vitaefoundation.org

Reservations will be secured when payment is received.

You may pay by credit or debit card by calling 800.393.5791 or by sending your check or money order to our office.

Vitae Foundation

1731 Southridge Dr., Suite D
Jefferson City, MO 65109

There will be an opportunity to financially support the mission of the Vitae Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit, through a tax-deductible donation during the event.

VITAE
TOGETHER
We Are Winning

