YOUNG FRIENDS OF DRED SCOTT

THE DRED SCOTT
 HERITAGE FOUNDATION
 ST. LOUIS, MO

OUR MISSION:

To involve young adults in learning and then educating the public about the critical impact of the Dred Scott Decision and the struggle for freedom of Dred and Harriet Scott through commemoration, education and reconciliation. Young Friends of Dred Scott (YFDS) also support the efforts of our parent non-profit organization: the Dred Scott Heritage Foundation.

YOUNG FRIENDS' ACTIVITIES:

Participate in an annual historical educational field trip. Past events include:

- 2010 - Abraham Lincoln Museum and Library
- 2011 - The Holocaust Museum
- 2012 - The Griot of Black History and Culture (Black Wax Museum)
- 2013 - The Missouri Civil War Museum

Assist in educational promotions of the foundation at least once a year

Young Friends promote the foundation by telling others about the organization and finding great resources to meet our goals

Participate in Community Service activities at least once a year.

Support the foundation in its fund raising efforts (i.e.- The Dred Scott Penny Drive – Ongoing campaign until paid)

BENEFITS:

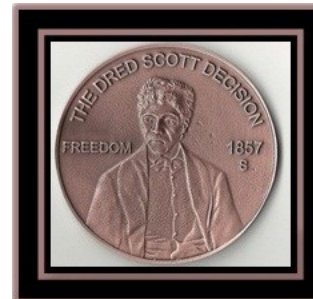

YFDS have the opportunity to develop leadership skills under the wings of accomplished community leaders. YFDS receive a 25% discount on materials and registrations during their membership year. YFDS have the opportunity to be chosen to be on the Dred Scott Youth Advisory Board and influence some of the annual programming. YFDS are eligible to apply for the Dred Scott Scholarship. YFDS will receive a downloadable membership card and template for a YFDS business cards to help promotion the Foundation.

MEMBERSHIP:

YFDS are between the ages of 18 and 35. An annual membership is $25.00
